DOES IT STACK WITH SOCIAL SECURITY? IS IT TAXED?

UNCONDITIONAL

NOT TAXED, CANNOT BORROW OR LEND AGAINST IT

THE FREEDOM DIVIDEND STACKS WITH

- SSDI (SOCIAL SECURITY)
  - OASDI (OLD AGE, SURVIVORS, & DISABILITY INSURANCE)
  - UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE
  - HOUSING ASSISTANCE
  - VA DISABILITY
  - MEDICAID

CAN WE GET IT PASSED? YES!

YANG'S BIPARTISAN APPEAL

Son of Taiwanese Immigrants

and Christian serial entrepreneur

UBI will help alleviate poverty

and help the free market

Concerned about women and POC

and about the white working class

We'll provide a path to citizenship and secure our southern border

Get corporations to pay their fair share

and reduce bureaucracy

We'll intervene to slash college
tuition and debt

and promote trade schools as an alternative

We'll provide a public option for health insurance

and deregulate medical licensing

WILL UBI CAUSE INFLATION?

NO.

NO NEW MONEY IS PRINTED

Money for the freedom dividend would be already existing money.

CASE STUDY: ALASKA

In places that do have partial basic incomes, like Alaska, inflation rates lowered after introduction.

SUPPLY-DEMAND & COMPETITION

When people are replacing the way they pay for something, demand doesn't tend to increase. For example, if I'm using basic income to pay for milk instead of SNAP, I'm unlikely to buy twice as much milk. If demand is the same, prices are unlikely to rise.

ABOUT RENT:

- There are 5x more vacant homes than homeless people in the USA.
- Landlords will want to compete for this money, driving down the cost of housing.

@AndrewYang

I'm a fan of a higher minimum wage – no one should be working full-time and be poor in this country. I prefer a dividend though because 1) it recognizes parenting and other caregiving work and 2) it supports small businesses rather than increasing their costs. It's a better path.

FD VS MINIMUM WAGE

DIVIDEND	$15/HOUR
SUPPORTS STAY-AT-HOME PARENTS, CAREGIVERS, AND ELDERLY	NO BENEFIT TO STAY-AT-HOME PARENTS, CAREGIVERS, OR ELDERLY
GIVES EVERY CITIZEN THE EQUIVALENT OF A $6/HOUR RAISE	DOES LITTLE TO BENEFIT THOSE EARNING ABOVE $15/HOUR
EVERYONE HAS MORE DISCRETIONARY INCOME, STRENGTHENING BUSINESSES AND CREATING JOBS	GREATER BURDEN PLACED ON EMPLOYERS, SPEEDS UP THE RATE OF AUTOMATION AND POTENTIALLY DECREASES JOBS
